

Mablethorpe & DMC

Mablethorpe and District Motor Club were founded in 1957 and have been growing since then to the club that they are today.

With over 50 members, most of them active in some way or another, competing, organising or marshalling, they continue to provide motorsport fun for all. There is now a classic section to the motor club. Motorsport activities include PCT's, 12 car's, stage events and road events as well as the social aspect including a club barbecue and treasure hunt, scaletrix nights and more.

Please visit www.mablethorpedmc.co.uk for more details.

Lincs Louth MC

Lincs Louth Motor Club is the most active Classic Car club in Lincolnshire, organising both static events and classic runs, as well as a lot of members competing on their own events and ones further afield. Founded in 1900 they have been going for over a century and they continue to provide entertainment for all, not just classic car members. They have a healthy rally side to the club, with various members competing in PCT's, 12 cars, stage and road rallying as well as organising 12 cars.
